

Mr. Edward Adjei-Kensah

Mr. Edward Adjei-Kensah is a parishioner of St. Mary Parish in East Hartford. He is self-employed and is a hardworking family man. His life embodies his faith in action. He is one of those rare people who attract both respect and love without seeking them. He is a leader who has organized Catholic Faith Communities both here in the U.S. and in his native Ghana, West Africa. He is the president and founder of the Ghanaian Catholic Ministry at St. Mary Church in East Hartford and the president of New England Ghanaian Catholics. He believes that people have a right and duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.
